RE: The Detroit Public Safety Foundation request to accept the Mental Health Co-Response Partnership Grant

Ballmer Group has awarded the Detroit Public Safety Foundation (DPSF) with a grant for a total of $400,000.00. There is no match requirement. The total project cost is $400,000.00.

The objective of the grant is to support the Detroit Co-Response Partnership. The Co-Response Partnership is a three-pronged intervention approach that coordinates the services of a Crisis Intervention Team, an Integrated Response at Detroit's 911 call center, and the Detroit Homeless Outreach Team.

I respectfully ask your approval to accept and appropriate funding in accordance with the attached resolution.

Sincerely,

DocuSigned by:

We are pleased to inform you that a recommendation has been sent by Ballmer Group to the Goldman Sachs Philanthropy Fund (GSPF), a donor-advised fund where we maintain an account, that it make the first disbursement toward a total investment of up to $400,000 to Detroit Police Department for Detroit Co-Response Partnership. GSPF will perform its own review of this recommendation, and GSPF retains decision making authority to act in accordance with its policies and charitable purpose. As such, we do not enter into any agreements with you regarding this recommendation or any resulting grant. Please note that this communication serves as your formal notification of Ballmer Group's recommendation. The next step will be for GSPF to notify you upon their review and decision. Neither this letter nor our recommendations represent or constitute a legally enforceable pledge or obligation.
