SOUTHWEST DETROIT

1. Event Cleanup Plan

Our event is in a private contained area bordered by fencing, we use both the Senate Theatre's permanent bulk waste garbage container to discard all waste collected throughout the day. We empty garbage receptacles scattered throughout the lots and inside the theater the night of the event and have approximately 25 volunteers that come back the next day to pick up any additional waste left on the floor in both the lots and outside pedestrian areas/streets. If we see a need for overflow of waste we will dispose of it at our permanent bulk waste receptacle at Garage Cultural (less than a mile away).

2. Communication & Community Impact Plan

This event is put on by a collective of 10 NextGen creatives from Southwest Detroit with the support of Garage Cultural which has a 30 year history of producing arts and cultural work in the community. It has become one of the most beautiful and diverse events in Southwest, the positive impacts that it has had on our creative economy and youth, resident families and elders is tremendous. It is extremely critical that we support and strengthen this resident-led efforts to create a rich arts and cultural ecosystem.

Surrounding neighborhood community members are notified and invited to participate in the event a week before the event takes place. Pedestrian traffic will be managed by traffic controllers at all three relevant intersections with appropriate signage indicating where permissible parking is available in order to not disrupt residents. Safety will be addressed in our emergency safety plan and sound carryover will be minimal and aligned with city ordinances.

Event Description

Brief Event Purpose & Description:

SW Fest, a first of its kind free intergenerational and multicultural music and arts festival, was founded in the summer of 2021. Showcasing and providing a platform for local artists and creatives, SWFest was the outcome of our youth leadership identifying a community need, namely connectivity, amid the pandemic's devastating impact on our residents. SWFest reinvigorated the community, offering reprieve and joy; while providing NextGen leadership an opportunity to actualize their stewardship. The festival is a true reflection of the linguistic and cultural diversity of the neighborhood, providing a framework for youth to retain cultural connections and tradition while building across generational differences to create a more expansive cultural corridor.
