Communication and Community Impact Plan

Renaissance High School Community is committed to serving and supporting the community through various activities and events. Every year, RHS hosts homecoming activities which includes a parade, pep rally and homecoming game. The RHS community is invited to view the parade and it is an exciting event for the entire community.

Students and staff communicate with the community via email, and fliers to inform them of upcoming events. Also, students and staff call the surrounding community to remind them of the event. Each year the event has a positive response from the community, and they are excited to view the parade.

Event Clean Up

The students and staff at RHS will ensure the surrounding areas of the parade are properly cleaned up and free of any litter or debris.
