Old Western Market Event Clean Up Plan II

The major cleanup that will be necessary after each session of the market is the removal and depositing of paper goods. Garbage receptacles will be scattered throughout the market for attendees and vendors to use. The garbage bags collected will be disposed through our commercial weekly pick up. The total property 2640 Michigan Avenue will be inspected and cleared of debris as necessary. A special holding tank will be available for grey water and disposed of properly. The water in the porta potty and hand wash area is collected by holding tanks and disposed by the contracted company.

Security plan II

Our security plan meets the criteria for less than 300 people. Emergencies of a general nature including medical general issues, cardiac issues and allergic reaction will be prepared for. Our director of the market is a retired physician who will be available for medical triage. For fire, lost child, weather emergency or any other announcing needs a mega phone and an air horn will be available for the staff to use. A fire extinguisher will be available for controlling a fire. 911 will be called for all emergencies

Event Description

Brief Event Purpose & Description:

Old Western Market will sit on the land of the former Western Market, an iconic market that served Corktown for almost a century. The market will seek to provide vendors selling basic products as well as unique foods, cheeses, and artisans products. This six month extended term is to show the support of the market so a two million funded permanent complex could be built on the land. It is expected that some of the vendors of the market will graduate to one of the fifteen 400 sq/ft storefronts that will be constructed on the complex. The market will help alleviate the food desert of our area.
