

Cinceré Quran Al'Talet

Dedicated Advocate, Activist, Adroit at Community Intervention

WHEREAS,

Cinceré Al'Talet is deeply connected to the heart and soul of Detroit, embodying the very spirit that makes our city resilient and vibrant. He believes in helping the entire household, especially if a young person is facing legal troubles. "If you can help the parents, that can change the foundation of what the child goes back home to, which in turn can help produce a different result for the family." He is a mentor to currently incarcerated men, as well as formerly incarcerated men returning to full participation in our communities. He can reach and relate to the 14-year-old, as well as the 65-year-old; AND

WHEREAS,

He honorably served in the U.S. Military. Then in 2019, was hired to join the Ceasefire Detroit team, in partnership with the Detroit Police Department (DPD), under the Detroit Youth Violence Prevention Initiative (DYVPI). He volunteers with organizations such as Focus Hope, and partners with the United States Attorney General's Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Drug Enforcement Administration, and local police departments to bring young violent men together to provide alternative to violence interventions and resolution. Cinceré Principle Consulting Group assists with license restoration, traffic ticket matters, child support rectification, and several other legal matters. He supports families of victims of homicide, missing people and cold cases; while also co-leading a Domestic Violence Prevention Roundtable discussion bi-weekly at Wayne County Community College District. Through this initiative, he has been able to assist and support survivors of domestic violence with personal protection orders and relocation assistance. He also teaches Michigan Gun Safety Law and gun safety classes. All of which has earned him opportunities to travel to speak at colleges and in prisons on recidivism, social resilience, and fatherhood; AND

WHEREAS,

He is a prestigious member of the Universal Supreme Council of the 33rd and Last Degree, Inc of the Universal Masonic Brotherhood. Among all these accolades, accomplishments, and acknowledgments he is most proud of his greatest accomplishment - being a father to his son. NOW, THEREFORE BE IT,

RESOLVED,

That on this day, April 22, 2025 City Council President Pro-Tempore James E. Tate Jr. and the entire Detroit City Council hereby acknowledge and express their sincerest gratitude to Cinceré Al'Talet for decades of skillful and poignant advocacy as a dedicated and selfless leader on behalf of families throughout the City of Detroit.
