Testimonial Resolution

LIZ WARNER

Award-Winning Multimedia Journalist

WHEREAS

Liz Warner was born in the City of Detroit to a father who designed and manufactured aluminum radio towers, making sound and airwaves an essential part of her DNA. As a teenager, she developed a deep passion for music, spending her time listening to records and singing in the choir; and

WHEREAS

Liz Warner began her broadcasting career in 1995 at WDET as a live producer and host affiliate. Over the next twelve years and more than 15,000 hours, she built a strong reputation as a gifted and award-winning multimedia journalist specializing in audio storytelling. Her radio program earned critical acclaim from both listeners and editors alike. During the 1990s and early 2000s, she held DJ residencies at renowned Detroit venues such as Lush, Motor Lounge, and Buddha Lounge, and curated stages for events including Comerica's CityFest and Marshall Field's Day of Music; and

WHEREAS

Liz Warner later moved to California, where her career continued to thrive. In 2018, she earned a Master of Arts in Specialized Journalism from the University of Southern California. While based on the West Coast, she served as a resident DJ for Dublab and hosted Border Blaster, an original world music video series broadcast on KCET-TV in Los Angeles. Her work was recognized by the National Arts & Entertainment Journalism Awards, the Southern California Journalism Awards, and the Los Angeles Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists; and

WHEREAS

Liz Warner has demonstrated remarkable versatility throughout her career. She has served as a Board Member of the Contemporary Art Institute of Detroit and contributed to a range of prominent outlets including The Wire, Impulse Records, MTV Amp, Detroit Metro Times, and Orbit Magazine. She curated a symposium of authors and musical performances at Wayne State University and co-curated a sound-only exhibition, Sacred and Profane, at the Detroit Artists Market; and

WHEREAS

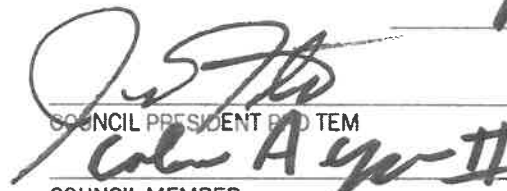

Liz Warner is an accomplished writer and editor, television host, event and exhibition curator, DJ, and presenter. Her work has been featured in HOOR Detroit, Detroit Free Press, and Detroit Metro Times; THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED

That the Office of Councilman Scott Benson and the Detroit City Council hereby congratulate Liz Warner, Detroit's own award-winning multimedia journalist. May God continue to bless your endeavors.
