

Byron Osbern

Objective

To explain myself as a passionate, competent, and knowledgeable advocate for people and causes that I apply myself toward. My focus is to improve the conditions of the world around me.

Education

IBEW Local 58 EITC
Electrical Journeyman
Construction
September 2011

Wayne State University
Labor Studies Program 2023

University of Wisconsin
Labor Studies Program 2021

Awards & acknowledgments

Consistently lead organizing efforts in labor, community, and political circles. Has received honors from peers and constituents.

Has sought and obtained honors for other leaders in industry and community as well.

Experience

Served on multiple Boards and Committees for the betterment of residents, families, workers, and organizations

- Detroit Board of Ethics
- Detroit Mayors Workforce Development Board

- Detroit Board of Zoning Appeals
- Access For All and DPSCD Randolph CTE Advisory
- A.Philip Randolph Institute Treasurer
- Michigan Unarmed Combat Commission
- IBEW/NECA Labor Management Trust Fund
- Black Caucus Foundation

IBEW Local 58 Business Development

- Assisted in small Detroit business growth, minority business attraction, local contractor retention, and programs to encourage workers to enter the construction trades.

- Participated in contract negotiations, conflict resolution, positive public outreach and strengthening career exposure to youth and young adults. , and government affairs operations to advance the organization in Southeast Michigan

- Develop innovative solutions to Labor/management relations while maintaining union membership harmony. Leading government affairs operations to advance the organization in Southeast Michigan.