

ERIC R. DUEWEKE

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Morningside Community Organization

Board of Directors (2021-present) Served as President from 2021-25. Elected volunteer leader of 501-c-3 nonprofit neighborhood association. Morningside is one of the largest and most representative community groups on Detroit's eastside. Currently serving as Secretary.

Detroit Brownfield Redevelopment Authority

Board of Directors (2022-present) Appointed by Detroit City Council to 9-member volunteer Board that meets biweekly to consider brownfield designations and tax incentives that encourage economic development. Currently serving as board Treasurer, as elected by Board members.

U-SNAP-BAC Non-profit Housing Corporation

Chair, Board of Directors (2015-present) Active advisor to Executive Director of the premier nonprofit housing development organization on Detroit's eastside.

Community Development Advocates of Detroit

Board of Directors (2021-present) Elected by nonprofit development leaders to represent District 4 members. Board Treasurer since 2023. Co-chair of Public Policy Committee.

PlanDETROIT—Detroit Planning and Development Department

Master Plan Advisory Group (2024-2026) Selected as one of 35 Detroit resident volunteers advising staff and consultants that are drafting a revised Master Plan of Policies for the City of Detroit.

WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Michigan—Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning

Lecturer IV, Community Partnerships Manager (2002-2021) Arrange student/faculty research, community planning projects and internships with Detroit and Flint nonprofits and government agencies. Serve as faculty co-instructor for the "capstone" community planning studios in the Urban and Regional Planning Program. Solicit, negotiate and oversee AmeriCorps and other community-based internships for Urban Planning graduate students. Secure and monitor external grants and contracts for research and outreach.

Eastside Industrial Council

Program Manager, Executive Director (1999-2002) Responsible for daily administration, including member services, fund development, program and fiscal management. Originated and managed in-place industrial park program. Assisted City of Detroit staff in application for federal Renewal Communities status.

Detroit Eastside Community Collaborative

Project Director (1997-98) Manager for the Community Reinvestment Strategy planning team for the City of Detroit—Cluster 1. Coordinated local CDC involvement in the national Success Measures Project. Collaborated with University of Michigan staff in submitting grant request to national foundation.

MomingSide Community Organization Administrative Director (1995-96) Managed all components of single-family housing acquisition and rehabilitation program. Edited and supervised production of community newspaper. Responsible for block club and volunteer coordination, including Board of Directors. Liaison to U-SNAP-BAC and Warren/Conner Development Coalition.

Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts Executive Director (1992-94) Responsible for overall management of historic 1800-seat theatre. Supervised development, marketing, and box office functions. Served as chief financial officer of the organization.

EDUCATION

B.A., Wayne State University, Speech Communication and Theatre

M.B.A., State University of New York at Binghamton, Non-Profit Management