

COUNCIL PRESIDENT PRO TEM JAMES TATE

RESOLUTION FOR THE ASSIGNMENT OF A SECONDARY STREET NAME AT THE INTERSECTION OF STIMSON STREET AND CASS AVENUE TO DR. CHAD AUDI STREET

WHEREAS, The Detroit City Council Planning and Economic Development Standing Committee conducted a public hearing on Thursday, October 27, 2022, to consider eight (8) eligible Secondary Street Sign petitions per Chapter 43 of the 2019 Detroit City Code; and

WHEREAS, The eight (8) eligible Secondary Street Sign petitions include the following names: O'Neil D. Swanson, John Lee Hooker, Elizabeth L. Richard, Gregory Mudge, Dr. Chad Audi, Benjamin "Benny" Napoleon, Jeannette M. Wheatley, and Bishop James Cornell Scott Sr. and NOW THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED, The Planning & Economic Development Standing Committee recommends that the Detroit City Council hereby approves the issuance of secondary street name for Dr. Chad Audi; THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER

RESOLVED, That the intersection of Stimson Street and Cass Avenue be assigned the secondary street name "Dr. Chad Audi Street" in celebration of her noteworthy achievements; THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER

RESOLVED, That the projected cost of designing, producing, erecting, replacing, and removing the two signs and markers designating the assignment of secondary name shall be paid, in advance, to the street fund by the petitioner requesting the secondary name; THEREFORE BE IT FINALLY

RESOLVED, A certified copy of the resolution shall be transmitted by the city clerk to the fire department, historical department, police department, department of public works and its city engineering and traffic engineering divisions, recreation department, department of transportation, and the United States Postal Service.